

LIFE GROUP DISCUSSION GUIDE

Remember that Life Groups are a place where we practice what is preached. We discuss the Bible for transformation, not just information.

Icebreaker: If you could choose one song to be your current theme song, what would it be and why?

PRAY:

Pray together for the Holy Spirit to open your eyes to behold wonderful things (Ps. 119:18) as your group meets with the Lord.

READ:

Ask a group member to read Matthew 27:46 & Psalm 22:1-31 out loud.

DISCUSS:

Today's passages highlight how Jesus' agonizing death led to his (and our) greatest acceptance. What does real acceptance look like and why is Jesus the only one able to offer it to us?

IDENTITY:

Psalm 22's writer gives God all the praise despite experiencing deep agony. How does living out of the acceptance we have in Jesus allow us to face trials differently?

WORSHIP

Jesus called out to God on the cross despite his feeling of abandonment. What would it look like to worship God in the midst of suffering and feelings of abandonment?

COMMUNITY

Read Romans 12:15. Community is meant to be a place of mutual rejoicing and lamenting. What does it practically look like for us to draw close to those in our community who are suffering?

MISSION

Salvation has been extended to all nations because of the agonizing death of Jesus! Reread Psalm 22:22. How does the joy of salvation lead you to share the gospel with others? How can giving God praise make an impact for the gospel?

GROUP ENGAGE:

Jesus' words on the cross remind us of our mission as His ambassadors. As a group, try this idea to engage in the mission of God or come up with your own.

Who is the one person closest to you, who is the furthest from Jesus? Share whatever name comes to mind with your group, then write the name on a note card, commit to praying for that person's heart to be open to the gospel. Pray through this list of people every week this month and consider inviting them to one of our Easter services or planning an Easter event you can invite them to.

WE ARE FAMILY:

How can you hold each other accountable to respond to God this week?

Share prayer requests (either as a group, or as partners/smaller groups)

VALUE SPOTLIGHT:

TRUTH | That which communicates the Reality of God.

We can trust that God will never leave us nor forsake us, even in our deepest suffering.

SERIES OVERVIEW:

We connect dying words to the end of life, but Jesus' last words were just the beginning. This Easter season, we're exploring seven powerful things Jesus said from the cross.
